The Downtown Los Angeles Office of O'Hagan Meyer LLP is seeking to hire a class of Summer Associates for the summer of 2025. Summer Associates will gain experience working with a number of partners and associates on a range of cases, including single-plaintiff FEHA matters, wage and hour class and PAGA actions, and employment advice and counseling. Our program includes one-on-one mentorship with a senior associate or partner, opportunities to observe court proceedings, and a variety of professional development and networking activities. Compensation is competitive. The ideal candidate should possess excellent writing and legal research skills and an interest in employment law. Candidates should submit a resume, cover letter, law school transcript, and writing sample to Kandice Canchan (kcanchan@ohaganmeyer.com) and Ashleigh Kasper (akasper@ohaganmeyer.com).
