

CLASS OF 2020
DIGITAL YEARBOOK

JOHN M. LANGSTON BAR ASSOCIATION
CELEBRATES YOUR ACHIEVEMENT!

You are our future!

2020

You are our legacy!

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE CLASS OF 2020!

This is your time, embrace it. Graduation is more than merely walking across a stage; it is a rite of passage. You have done the work, endured these challenging times, and now you deserve to be recognized and celebrated. You are an extraordinary class. While the world may not be in the place that you imagined when you started law school and you are facing many uncertainties, we are confident that you will accomplish great things and advance the legal profession. You are the generation that can influence the progress needed in this world. But progress does not happen by accident; it will take your commitment and perseverance to propel us all forward. You are the future and we believe in you. With your strength and leadership, you will change the world for the better.

And Langston will be here to support you!

Nyanza Shaw, President

2020 Graduates

Oluwatobi Agbelemose

UC Irvine School of Law

My name is Oluwatobi (Olu) Agbelemose and I am from Cerritos, California. I am a hard worker who is ambitious and cares deeply about being of service to my local and larger communities. Whereas my dad is a Nigerian immigrant and my mom is a Texas native, I am aware of, and care for, issues pertinent to both my local community and those overseas. In law school, I took every opportunity to explore my diverse interests and was able to confirm my passion for advocacy and community uplift. As a first-generation lawyer, there is no way I could have made it this far if all of my family, friends, lawyers, and other great people had not dedicated their time, insight, or other resources in some way. Thank you to all the great people who have sown into me along this journey.

CONNECT WITH ME
LINKEDIN

Nnola Somtochi Amuzie

USC Gould School of Law

Nnola recently graduated from the University of Southern California Gould School of Law. Before law school, she received her bachelor's degree in Political Science, with a minor in African American Studies from the University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA). At Gould, Nnola was involved with a number of organizations on campus, including the Black Law Students Association (BLSA); Sports Law Society; and the Entertainment Law Society. She has served on the BLSA Executive Board as the Alumni Relations Chair and the Chair for the 2019 BLSA Annual Awards Banquet. As a 2L, Nnola participated in the Hale Moot Court Honor Program and competed as a Finalist in the Oral Advocacy Competition. Last Fall, she completed a Legal Externship with the National Football Players Association in Washington, D.C.

After graduated, Nnola plans to join the Los Angeles office of Alston & Bird in Litigation and Trial Practice.

Nnola was born and raised in the San Francisco Bay Area. Her parents are Nigerian immigrants who have constantly instilled the importance of culture, family, and community into her. Nnola's childhood dream has always been to study law and use the power of her voice to be an impactful advocate and leader.

CONNECT WITH ME
LINKEDIN

Tristyn English-Beckwith

USC Gould School of Law

Tristyn English-Beckwith is a graduate of the University of Southern California Gould School of Law. Born in Dallas, Texas, Tristyn attended undergrad at The University of Texas at Austin where she received her Bachelor's of Science in Political Communications with a minor in African and African Diaspora studies. She decided to move to Los Angeles and attend USC in hopes of joining the Trojan network and having access to a broad legal market. Tristyn has a strong interest in pursuing family law and helping victims of domestic abuse. In an effort to cultivate her passion for family law, she interned with various family law non-profits including Peace Over Violence and the Harriett Buhai Center for Family Law. Additionally, Tristyn externed for the Honorable Amy M. Pellman at the Los Angeles Superior Court, Family Division where she had the opportunity to experience complex child custody, dissolution and surrogacy cases. After graduation, Tristyn will be joining Feinberg, Mindel, Brandt and Klein (FMBK) as an Associate Attorney practicing exclusively in family law. Tristyn is very excited to begin work at FMBK and hopes that she can inspire more women of color to pursue a career in family law.

CONNECT WITH ME
LINKEDIN

Dominique Brown
UC Irvine School of Law

Dominique Brown received her Juris Doctor from UCI Law. In her time there she dedicated herself to indigent defense. As a Public Service Law Fellow, she summered at the Los Angeles Public Defenders Office and The Bronx Defenders. Through the UCI Criminal Justice Clinic, she assisted homeless, low-income and non-citizen clients with misdemeanor cases and post-conviction relief. Moreover, in her last year Ms. Brown interned at the NAACP Legal and Educational Defense Fund. In her free time, she served the National Black Law Students Association (NBLSA) at the local, regional and national levels. She also completed over 120 hours of pro bono work. Ms. Brown is a 2020 Langston Bar Association Scholarship recipient and served the 2019 Langston Board as the Law Student Liaison.

Prior to law school, Ms. Brown received a Sociology B.A. from the University of California, Los Angeles. She also worked as a Litigation Clerk at Irell and Manella LLP. She is a native of Sacramento, CA and a member of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc.

Latrice M. Burks
USC Gould School of Law

Latrice Burks is a graduating law school student at USC Gould School of Law, and is a 2019 John B. Langston Bar Association Scholar. While in law school, she worked as a Summer Associate at Squire Patton Boggs (US) LLP, externed for the Honorable Andre Birotte, externed for the United States Attorney's Office, and served as a Teaching Assistant (TA) for Professor Samuel Erman. After Latrice takes the bar exam, she will clerk for a district court judge in Hartford, CT. After completing her clerkship, Latrice will join McGuireWoods as an Associate in their DTLA office. Latrice has been involved with the John B. Langston Bar Association since she moved to Los Angeles from Cleveland in 2016, and she looks forward to staying involved as an attorney.

Octavia Latrease Carson
Thomas Jefferson School of Law

Octavia Carson was born and raised in Pontiac, Michigan. She served as the Editor-in-Chief of the Thomas Jefferson Law Review and was the president of the Black Law Student Association. She published to Notes in the Thomas Jefferson Law Review. She interned with WilkMazz in summer 2019. She also interned for Higgs, Fletcher, and Mack LLP during the summer of 2018 and for Magistrate Judge Dembin in the United States District Court for the Southern District of California in Spring 2019. In Spring 2020 she extended with Senior Judge John A Houston. Throughout law school Ms. Carson mentored diverse high school students interested in pursuing law through the Crawford Legal Institute Mentorship Bond. She is committed to justice not merely in words but in deed. In the fall of 2020 Ms. Carson will begin working as a junior law clerk with the Board of Immigration Appeals through the Department of Justice Honor's Program.

"Congratulations on your accomplishment. Now, as one of the nation's esteemed lawyers, you are poised to play your part to ensure that everyone receives fairness and justice. With your precious law degree, make yourself, your family and us proud by what you do with it. Remember that along the way, you will fight many battles, and it will not be easy. Stay vigilant, stay strong, stay excellent."

Lawrence C. Hinkle II
34th President (2010)/Advisory Board Member (2020)

"Faith without works is dead and always remember that you can do ALL things through Christ who strengthens you. Take it each day at a time."

Tatianna Y. Metters
Recording Secretary (2020)

Rebecca Carter
UCLA School of Law

Rebecca Carter is a recent graduate from UCLA School of Law and during the 2019-2020 academic year, Rebecca was a visiting student at Northwestern Pritzker School of Law. At UCLA, Rebecca specialized in the Critical Race Studies program, which analyzes the ways law and race shape one another. She is dedicated to serving communities of color and low-income communities on various social justice issues through a Critical Race Theory lens. Rebecca is currently working with Chicago Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights this summer through the Public Interest Law Initiative and is an incoming associate at Winston & Strawn in Chicago, Illinois.

CONNECT WITH ME
LINKEDIN

Mariah Michelle Comer
Cornell Law School

Mariah Comer is from Santa Ana, CA and is the first person in her family to attend college and law school. She attended UCLA for undergrad where she majored in both Political Science and African American Studies with a minor in Education. At UCLA, Mariah participated in various programs where she mentored high school students of color to pursue a college degree. Additionally, she was heavily involved in UCLA's Black Pre-Law Association where she served as Vice President and Resource Coordinator of the organization. Now, Mariah is graduating from Cornell Law School in Ithaca, NY. At Cornell, Mariah continued her passion for mentoring students and helped develop the Diversity Matters Outreach Program which provided guidance for college students of color interested in attending law school. Furthermore, Mariah held leadership roles in Cornell's Black Law Student Association as Vice President and Programming Coordinator. During Mariah's 3L year at Cornell, she was awarded with the Langston Bar Association Scholarship and is extremely grateful for Langston's care and generosity throughout her time in law school.

CONNECT WITH ME
LINKEDIN

Cashae P. Ellis
Loyola Law School

Cashae Ellis was born and raised in Los Angeles California. After graduating high school, she went on to pursue her undergraduate degree at the University of Southern California where she majored in Sociology with minors in Political Science and Forensic Criminality. While pursuing her law degree at Loyola Law School, Cashae worked with Loyola's Project for the Innocent and the Federal Public Defender's Death Penalty Clinic. Her passion lies with protecting and advocating for the rights of the most vulnerable members of our society.

CONNECT WITH ME
LINKEDIN

Steven A. Friday
Loyola Law School

Olivia Green
Loyola Law School

Olivia Green grew up in the bay area and attended undergrad at Cal State Fullerton. After spending an amazing Summer interning for a Congresswoman in Washington, D.C., Olivia recognized her passion for the law, and ultimately was admitted to Loyola Law School in 2017.

At Loyola, Olivia has served as the President of the Black Law Student Association, and an Oralist on the Entertainment Moot Court team. Olivia is incredibly excited to transition from a Law Clerk to an Attorney at Matern Law Group, where she will practice Labor and Employment law after graduation. Lastly, Olivia wants to thank her loved ones for supporting her through her law school experience. Congratulations to the class of 2020!

Alphamorlai Lamine Kebeh
UCLA School of Law

Born in Athens, Greece, Alphamorlai Kebeh moved to Worcester, Massachusetts as a youth. There he established and organized two city-wide competitive sports tournaments, the Let's Play Hoops league and the Worcester World Cup. He continued to contribute to these tournaments while studying political science at the University of Massachusetts at Amherst (UMass). Prior to law school, Morlai served as a member of the university's Center for Education Policy and Advocacy, where he lobbied for affordable higher education. In addition, he participated in the Suffolk County Pre-Law Undergraduate Scholars Program, emerging victorious in the program's moot court competition.

At the UCLA School of Law, Morlai found new outlets for his passion for sports and helping others, while also exploring new interests. He has served as a mentor in UCLA's Law Fellows program, externed at Wasserman Media Group, and written analytic literature on intellectual property law, all while actively playing on the law school's basketball team. Currently, Morlai is focused on securing employment at a firm where he can manifest his interests in intellectual property and sports while contributing to the campaign against racial injustice. In his spare time, Morlai enjoys playing basketball, dancing, and listening to music.

"You are not a drop in the ocean. You are the entire ocean, in a drop." -Rumi

Melvin Felton
Treasurer (2020)

"Take pride in how far you've come. Have faith in how far you can go. But don't forget to enjoy the journey. "

Reema El-Amamy
Hospitality/Bench & Bar Coalition (2020)

James Edward Lamb, Jr.
UC Irvine School of Law

An aspiring appellate litigator, James Lamb started his law school career at 36 years of age to study critical race theory and constitutional law. A former judicial extern for the Honorable André Birotte Jr. of the Central District of California, Mr. Lamb's studies focused on appellate jurisprudence, critical race feminism, and civil litigation. Mr. Lamb served as a Research Assistant for UCI Law's Center on Law, Equality, and Race for five semesters, invited former Congresswoman Gabrielle Giffords and Arizona Senate candidate Mark Kelly to UCI's campus for a gun control rally, and will argue an immigration case before the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals this October. Mr. Lamb competed in the semifinal round of UCI Law's 2018—19 Moot Court Competition and was a finalist in UCI Law's 2020 Mock Trial Competition.

CONNECT WITH ME
LINKEDIN

Anthony Elan Macklin
Howard University School of Law

Born and raised in Pomona, CA Anthony has spent the last seven years in the District of Columbia. Earning a bachelor's degree and Juris Doctorate from Howard University. During his time in law school Anthony focused on Education with an emphasis in Special Education Law. During his last semester, Anthony interned with the General Counsel Office for District of Columbia Public Schools. There he managed cases and participated in administrative hearings. Anthony plans to take the California bar exam and pursue opportunities in Special Education law.

CONNECT WITH ME
LINKEDIN

Ta'Nekeo Shawn Marcus
University of La Verne College of Law

"Under pressure, you don't rise to the occasion you sink to your level of preparation"
T. Shawn Marcus
Student Bar Association Vice-President

CONNECT WITH ME
LINKEDIN

"If you want to reach your life goals quickly find a mentor. You will need many mentors as you grow and expand past each of them. The only limits you have in this life are the ones you impose on yourself."

V. Ahda Carlisle Sands
24th President (2000)/Advisory Board Member (2020)

CaVoné Moore
Pepperdine University Caruso School of Law

CaVoné Moore received her Bachelors of Science in Education at the University of Miami in Coral Gables, Florida. She then pursued her law degree at Pepperdine University Caruso School of Law and received her J.D. in May 2020.

As a first-generational college graduate, CaVoné aspires to give back to communities alike. Her aim is to work tooth and nail fighting injustice, giving hope to the hopeless.

While in law school, CaVoné worked for the Legal Aid Foundation of Los Angeles as an immigration law clerk. She had the opportunity to successfully represent a detained civil rights activist from Cameroon. He sought asylum due to fear of persecution in his home country. The case was presented in front of the immigration judge who then granted asylum to the survivor. Additionally, while working in the Victim Impact Unit for the District Attorney's Office, CaVoné focused on domestic violence, child abuse, and elder abuse cases. She also worked on criminal reform cases providing alternative rehabilitative programs to the veteran and mentally ill communities.

Currently, CaVoné is clerking at Jeff Anderson & Associates where she is dedicated to empowering survivors of childhood sexual abuse through civil justice. She is honored to advocate for survivors and looks forward to dedicating the entirety of her legal career fighting injustice and giving a voice to the voiceless.

Syrita J. Morgan
Southwestern Law School

Syrita Morgan moved to Los Angeles from Washington, DC, in 2017. During law school, she earned academic awards for her high scores in Business Associations, Sales Law, and Tax Law. In 2019, she and her partner won first place in the National Black Law Students Association Nelson Mandela International Negotiations Competition. Syrita served as Co-Vice President of Southwestern's Student Bar Association, a Business Associations teaching assistant, a peer mentor, President of Southwestern's Mindfulness in the Law Society, and Chair of the American Bar Association's Law Student Mental Health Caucus.

Additionally, Syrita clerked at Public Counsel Law Center, where she was first introduced to the practice of civil litigation. The following Summer, she worked as a Certified Law Student with an in-house insurance defense firm. Since graduation, Syrita has continued to work for this firm as a Law Associate. She plans to take the California Bar exam in September 2020.

Chizitere N. Nadi
Southwestern Law School

My name is Chizitere Nnadi, I came to the United States at the age of 6 from Imo State, Nigeria. My aspiration to become a lawyer was solidified during Ms. Burin's Second Grade classes "Bring your Parents to School Day." One of the fathers who were able to come was a lawyer who attended Georgetown Law School. He spoke with such passion and conviction about the work he does and was an Immigrant like me. I saw myself in him, his ability to use his work to effectuate change not only here in the United States but also in his birth country of Guatemala touched my heart. From that day forward I knew I wanted to be a lawyer. Though I have struggled along the way I am proud that I was able to finish. I do all of this for my parents who left everything they knew back home to seek a better life for their children. I hope that each accomplishment that I attain helps them both find solace in their decision.

"Dred Scott (Scott v Sandford) continues to govern the behavior of this nation. It was true in 1857 and it's true today. George Floyd, Ahmaud Arbery, Christian Cooper, Breonna Taylor – Who's next? You have the unprecedented opportunity and are equipped with the requisite knowledge to address these issues. Remember silence is consent!"

Judge Allen J. Webster
Past President - Langston, CABL, & NBA

Ikechukwu (Ike) Nnadi
UC Irvine School of Law

My name is Ike Nnadi. I was born and raised in the Boston area. I am proud that my journey led me to UC Irvine School of Law and Merage School of Business, where I graduated with my JD and MBA. I am actively seeking opportunities use to my degrees to impact industries and communities. Professionally, I am particularly interested in the sports and entertainment law practice areas and related areas. Congrats to my fellow members the Class of 2020!

CONNECT WITH ME
LINKEDIN

Dante Paul II
Southwestern Law School

Dante Paul is from South Central Los Angeles specifically the Crenshaw District. He is at 3L Southwestern Law School. He is the former President and Vice President of the Southwestern BLSA chapter. Additionally, he is also a fellow of the Southwestern Negotiations Honors Program. Lastly, Dante Interned at Universal Music Publishing Music Group in the Business and Legal Affairs Office. Though Dante is extremely interested and eager to practice law in sports, media, and entertainment, he is passionate about social justice issues. He believes that it is important that he stays true to his community, his perspective, and his culture while being portrayal of positivity. He truly grateful, thankful and honored to be receiving his Juris Doctorate and he hopes to bring something unique to the legal profession—not just his social circumstances but also the unwavering and ambitious attitude that was given to me by my community. He hopes to provoke challenging conversation and action on inequality, while encapsulating the perspective of his blackness that is too often overlooked.

CONNECT WITH ME
LINKEDIN

Ajwang M. Rading
UCLA School of Law

Ajwang M. Rading's work focuses on the intersections of civil & human rights, American public policy, and technology. He will serve as a first-year associate at Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati in Palo Alto.

At UCLA Law, Ajwang is Co-Founder and President of the Policy Lab and serves as Articles Editor on the UCLA Law Review. He served as Co-Chair and President of the Black Law Students Association, leading the establishment of the first endowed scholarship for the organization and the greatest increase in admissions of Black students in over 25 years. Following his 1L year, Ajwang served as an extern in the Criminal Division at the U.S. Attorney's Office (Central District of California - Los Angeles), focusing on white collar and organized crimes, as well as national security.

Ajwang is a Senior Fellow with Humanity in Action; a former Youth Advisor to the Clinton Peace Centre in Northern Ireland; an Alumni Scholar of the Jackie Robinson Foundation and the Institute for Responsible Citizenship; and Co-Founder and Co-Chair of the UCLA Global Citizens Fellowship. Prior to law school, Ajwang worked at the Equal Justice Initiative (EJI) in Montgomery, Alabama and prior to that he worked on national security and criminal justice reform as Legislative Fellow for U.S. Senator Cory Booker, on Capitol Hill.

CONNECT WITH ME
LINKEDIN

Rukayat Salaam

Loyola Law School

Rukayat Salaam is a Southern California native who graduated with a B.A. in English at UC Riverside before pursuing her J.D. at Loyola Law, Los Angeles. At Loyola, Rukayat was an active member of the community. She served as Executive Editor of the Entertainment Law Review, Social Chair for her school's BLSA, and WRBLSA's Co-Director of Corporate Relations. She also represented the school as a Student Ambassador, acted as a team leader in Loyola's Young Lawyers Program, and worked in the Juvenile Justice Clinic. However, the highlight of her law school career was the time she spent as a judicial extern for the Honorable André Birotte Jr. in the Central District.

After Rukayat graduates, she hopes to continue to act as a resource for other students pursuing a legal career. She will work as an associate for an AmLaw 100 firm and would love the opportunity to clerk for a federal judge in the future. Outside of law, she plans to create a non-profit focused on mentoring and educating underserved youths in the Los Angeles area.

Thank you to the Langston Bar Association for your continued support and guidance. We did it!

Brittany A. Smith

Boston College Law School

Brittany A. Smith is a graduating law student from Boston College Law School and a Detroit native from the East Side of Detroit. Brittany is a graduate of the Detroit Public Schools where she attended Lewis Cass Technical High School, home to some of Motown's greatest icons and the best rappers in Hip Hop Brittany attended The University of Michigan-Ann Arbor and The London School of Economics and Political Science (LSE) for undergrad on multiple and generous scholarships, and was a campus leader at both schools. Between undergrad and law school, Brittany took three years off to live and work in Washington, DC - first being a White House Intern in President Obama's Administration, next as a speechwriter intern at West Wing Writers, followed by briefly substitute teaching in Anacostia. Brittany left teaching to find out if law was for her by working as a legal assistant at Boies, Schiller Flexner where she supported the Crisis Management Practice Group.

While in law school, Brittany worked in the Entrepreneurship & Innovation Clinic, the Community Enterprise Clinic, and the Prosecution Clinic as a 3:03 student attorney in the Middlesex County District Court. Brittany spent this past semester as a "Semester-In-Practice" extern working full time in Legal & Business Affairs at Universal Music Group for Jeff Harleston where her desire to practice entertainment law and support Blackculture was fortified.

Mikoe Tretola

University of La Verne College of Law

Hello, my name is Mikoe Tretola. I am a recent graduate of the University of La Verne College of Law and am seeking to build a career in both the entertainment and legal fields. I believe myself to be a multifaceted individual who has experienced life from all angles and uses those experiences to connect and build with those who share a similar resolve to better themselves and their surroundings. My sole goal is to leave my mark on the world in some way and my championship mentality gives me no doubt that I will do so.

Tracy Wash II

University of La Verne College of Law

CONNECT WITH ME
LINKEDIN

Cayla Kelley Whitley

UC Irvine School of Law

Cayla Whitley is a recent graduate from the University of California, Irvine School of Law. During her time at law school, she served as the Co-President for the Entertainment and Sports Law Society and Women's Law Society. Additionally, she acted as the Co-Fundraising Chair for the Public Interest Law Fund, a group that raises money for students working at non-profit organizations and agencies. Finally, she completed 145 hours of pro bono service, participated in UCI Law Moot Court, and interned at companies such as Forever 21, Lionsgate, and Sundance Institute.

CONNECT WITH ME
LINKEDIN

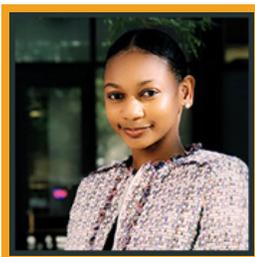

Martina Williams

Southwestern Law School

Born and raised in Prince Georges County, MD, Martina Williams has a BS degree from Clark Atlanta University in computer & information science. Upon graduating, she obtained professional experience as a business, systems, & data analyst for various aerospace, healthcare, and entertainment companies; and is currently a literary manager and creative executive at Emagine Content. Martina is graduating from Southwestern Law School as a part-time evening student, and has focused her studies on intellectual property with an emphasis on entertainment, contracts, and negotiations.

CONNECT WITH ME
LINKEDIN

Brei'a C. Womack

Loyola University Chicago School of Law

Brei'a C. Womack, a Compton native, is a graduate from Loyola University Chicago School of Law. She has dedicated her law school career to fighting for underserved communities, while externing for an appellate judge and working at a personal injury firm. She hopes to continue to support indigent communities after she takes the California bar exam.

CONNECT WITH ME
LINKEDIN

"You have achieved monumental success and come through the crucible of a pandemic, endowed with every quality and attribute you will need, not only to survive the challenges of the day, but to thrive every day as an advocate for justice. Step forth into your future with this confidence, black and brilliant!"

Damon M. Brown
36th President (2012)

Additional 3L Black Law Graduates

Esther Adabale

Loyola Law School

Clifton Albright

Loyola Law School

Michael Ball

USC Gould School of Law

Daisy Chepkurui

Loyola Law School

Wodlaire Clérvaud (LLM)

Southwestern Law School

Kendrick Coq

UCLA School of Law

Travone Davis

UC Irvine School of Law

Joseph Egbule

USC Gould School of Law

Shaughnessy Flint

Southwestern Law School

Crystal Goodwin

Southwestern Law School

Zalondria Graham

UCLA School of the Law

Alyson Green

USC Gould School of Law

Alex Harris

UCLA School of Law

Erika Ingram

USC Gould School of Law

Shakhila James

Loyola Law School

Emily Jordan

USC Gould School of Law

Aisling Kelly

USC Gould School of Law

Sharon Kirubi

Loyola Law School

Rose Lyn

UC Irvine School of Law

MacKenzie Mathews

USC Gould School of Law

Alexandra Mayo

USC Gould School of Law

Joshua McWhorter

USC Gould School of Law

Nassim Moallem

USC Gould School of Law

Thaddeus Napier-Dunnings

USC Gould School of Law

Christian (Christy) Negash

Pepperdine University Caruso
School of Law

Kellen Nelson

UC Irvine School of Law

Timothy Ogunniyi

Loyola Law School

Tayler Pattillo

Loyola Law School

Darren Pearce

UCLA School of Law

Saied Quadri

UCLA School of Law

Omarr Rambert

UCLA School of Law

EAlexus Ramsey

Loyola Law School

Aliyah Redic

USC Gould School of Law

Jalen Russell

USC Gould School of Law

Paige Samblanet

Loyola Law School

Ahyiesha S. Sarnor

Southwestern Law School

Eva Schifini

USC Gould School of Law

Tierney Sharpe

UCLA School of Law

Curtis Skinner

UCLA School of Law

Timaiah Smith

Loyola Law School

Jaylin Stevenson

UCLA School of Law

Whitney Williams

Pepperdine University Caruso
School of Law

Jennifer Wilson

USC Gould School of Law

Michael Woodson

UCLA School of Law

Class of 2020
Highlights

"Whatever you do, do not chase the dollar bill. Seek experience and opportunities to grow. Develop such excellence that clients will seek you."

Judge Rupert A. Byrdsong
30th President (2006)

"Congratulations on graduating from law school! You've all worked incredibly hard to achieve this milestone, and I'm so proud of your triumph. I know you couldn't have prepared for such an abrupt ending to this special chapter of your lives, but the journey that lies ahead is equally worthy of celebration. The world needs you now more than ever. I wish you continued success in each of your endeavors."

Arianna J. Goolsby
Law Student Outreach (2020)

Langston's Officers & Board of Directors

Officers

Nyanza Shaw, Esq.
President

Tiffany Gelott
Corresponding Secretary

Rodney Diggs
President- Elect

Melvin Felton
Treasurer

Daniel Prince
Vice President

Diane Robertson
Parliamentarian

Tatianna Metters
Recording Secretary

Jennifer Fisher
Sergeant-at-Arms

Board of Directors

Reema El-Amamy
Bench and Bar Coalition (& Hospitality)

Shae Harvey and Diane Robertson
In-House Counsel

Jennifer Fisher
Business Development & Strategic Partnerships

Felton Newell (Past President)
Judicial Nominations and Endorsements

John Mathews
Civil Rights

Justin Palmer
Langston Law Institute

Kevin D. Finley and Daniel Prince
Corporate Firm Network

Arianna Goolsby
Law Student Outreach

Stephen A. King
Criminal Law

Gary Farwell (Past President)
Legislation

Amanda Murray and Mark McLaughlin
Education & Programming

Daniel Prince and Tiffany Rollins
Membership/Lifetime Membership

Marjorie Williams
Entertainment Law

Nic McGrue and Lynette Jones
Outreach and Community Action

Valarie Dean
Events Coordinator

Latrice A. Byrdsong
Scholarship

Margo Bouchet
Family

Tiffany Gelott and Stephanie Awanyai
Young Lawyers

Ashley Bobo
Finance

Kimberly S. Toney and Ludlow B. Creary, II
Youth Outreach Committee

Anne Saxton and Margo Bouchet
Hall of Fame

Lawrence Hinkle (Past President),
Demetria Graves, Eean Boles and Ahda Sands (Past President)
Advisory Board Members

Diane Robertson
Historian

#LANGSTON4STUDENTS

A Relief Fund to benefit law students and provide essential resources to those affected by the Covid-19 crisis.

SUPPORT THE RELIEF FUND

DONATE BY TEXT-TO-GIVE
Text LANGSTON4STUDENTS to 44321

John M. Langston Bar Association is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization
P.O. Box 811985 • Los Angeles, CA • 90081-1985 • www.langstonbar.org

